Washington, Feb. 27.—Federal incorporation and exclusive federal regulation of issues of railroad securities were recommended today by Albert H. Harris, vice president and general counsel for the New York Central lines.
"Most of the people in the railroad business would be well satisfied to incorporate under a federal charter and avoid the troubles of diversified state control," he said.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Hastings, Neb., Feb. 27.—Roy K. Plummer, a salesman of this city, missing for the past ten days is an unwilling prisoner of two women in a Kansas City, Mo., hotel, according to a letter received here today by his wife, which she identified as being in her husband's handwriting. The letter was smuggled out. A grip belonging to the missing man was found in a depot at Grand Island, Neb., today. Plummer stated in the letter that he had been drugged.

News to Kansas City.
Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 27.—Larry Ghent, inspector of detectives, said this afternoon that the police had received no communication from the authorities of Hastings, Neb., concerning the alleged detention here of Roy K. Plummer, by two women. In the absence of such communication, he said, the local police would take no action.

AUTOISTS INVITED TO VISIT ROADS MEET SUNDAY

All Who Care to Motor to Tijeras will be Welcomed by Lecturers at Boosting Session.

All autoists who want to spend Sunday afternoon boosting the cause of good roads are invited to attend the illustrated lecture which will be staged at Tijeras at that time by the local good roads organization. There will be no admission fee and no collection.

Arrangements have been made for a raising meeting at the school house at Tijeras and residents for miles around will come in to attend. The roads local officials who will attend will leave town at 1:45 from a rendezvous at Second and Central avenues. It is desired that as many as possible meet with them there and make the trip out in a body.
Several well known local roads boosters will make short talks while the lantern will be operated by A. F. Vandusen. The slides to be used are provided by the national office of public roads. They have been shown in many other places in the county already.

ROAD SURVEY SOON TO BE COMPLETE

Preliminaries of Highway Building in Tijeras Canyon Nearly Finished by Forest Service

Preliminary steps toward the improvement of the Tijeras canyon road are going forward rapidly, according to an officer of the forest service when asked about the matter this morning.
"The survey has been made and we are now working on the field notes," he said. "We will have these done in a few days."
The forest service has a considerable sum of money available for expenditure on this road at once, and will have more by July 1, when the fiscal year begins. The local good roads organization is to arrange a meeting between the forest service officers and the county road board, with its own officers, when the survey is done and co-operative measures will be mapped out. The road board has pledged itself to do all in its power to secure the expenditure of the Camino Real bridge fund in the canyon for needed bridges, if all of it is needed, and will also work for the improvement of the road on each side of the forest in the canyon. Some of the worst places are not in the forest and consequently will have to be fixed by the county, but the forest service has offered the services of its officers to supervise the work and to make the survey. In fact, the service has already surveyed the road not only to its boundary but out to Tijeras, where the county will work.

TRY TRIP TO JEMEZ IN FORD ROADSTER THIS AFTERNOON

Trio of Albuquerque Men Undertake Difficult Mountain Journey for a Look at the Road.
Oakley Clifford, Jo White and Corley Quicke, local sales agent for the Ford automobile, left this afternoon at 2 o'clock in a Ford roadster for Jemez Springs, intending to make the trip by dusk. The road to Jemez is considered all but impassable for automobiles because of the heavy sand but Mr. Quicke feels sure he can drive his Ford through it.
Herbert Gales proposes to follow in an Overland and also thinks he can negotiate the trail.

MOOSE COMMITTEE WILL COMPILE DATA TONIGHT

Meeting to be Held at Commercial Club at 8 o'Clock for Report of Sub-Committee and Other Work.

The committee in charge of securing the data asked for by the investigators for the Local Order of Moose who recently looked over the claims of this city as a site for the location of the order's proposed sanitarium will hold a meeting tonight at the Commercial club building. At that time it is hoped to arrange all the data asked by the investigators so that it can be forwarded within the next day or so. This is very important, as the investigators must report on March 15 and the local boosters want them to have plenty of time to consider the local claims carefully.

The committee will meet at 8 o'clock. It is composed of Dr. Paulson, Dr. A. G. Shortle, J. B. Hendon, C. D. Cushman and E. Dana Johnson. Mr. Johnson's departure from the city causes a vacancy, which will likely not be filled.
The committee already has letters from numerous farmers in the valley stating the crops on which they specialize, the water they use and how they get it, shortages experienced, if any, and many other matters. It also has statements from Drs. Clipes and Shortle regarding the cost of building their sanitarium, cost of maintenance, etc. Literature asked for has also been obtained by M. L. Fox.

All this matter will be considered tonight at the meeting and the results compiled and tabulated. The whole will then be sent to C. C. Metcalf at Los Angeles for consideration by the investigators.

ASHURST ADVISES SENATOR TO SHUT UP

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Washington, Feb. 27.—Attempts by Senator Ashurst to get an agreement for a vote on March 25 on the constitutional amendment for woman suffrage were blocked today and the Arizona senator announced he would move for immediate consideration after the passage of the postoffice bill now pending. He also had a wordy clash with Senator Reed, who objected to fixing a date.
"If the senator would talk less," declared Mr. Ashurst, "we might finish some of this legislation the country is waiting for."
Several senators urged Mr. Ashurst to withdraw the remark but he refused.

FOURTH ESCAPE IS MADE BY MACKEY LAST NIGHT

Sierra County Bad Man Makes Getaway from Jail at Hillsboro and is at Large with Posse on Trail.

According to word received here this morning by Santa Fe officers, Joe Mackey, the Sierra county bad man, made good his escape from the Sierra county jail at Hillsboro last night. Mackey is reported to have stolen the best horse in the community and to have got clear away.
Mackey was captured yesterday morning at the Wyatt ranch. His first escape was five years ago from the same jail which he left last night. Since that time he has led a more or less marauding life, visiting ranches when in need of food or money and leaving behind him a trail of threats. The original charge against him was larceny of horses.
The second escape was not long ago when Mackey persuaded Sheriff Herbert McGrath, who had arrested him, that he was not the man the sheriff wanted and so secured his freedom.
The third escape took place Wednesday when, surrounded at the ranch of a cousin, he grabbed an old man and rode through the officers with the captive for a shield. He had vowed the ranch to kill his cousin, but the intended victim was absent.

Get a 16-cent box now.

A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 16-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the child—your little babies need a good gentle cleansing, too.

MUCH HERALDED JOY COMING NEXT WEEK AFTER ALL

President of Lincoln Highway not Missing Albuquerque, as was Reported—Vigil Grant to be Club Ground

The much heralded Mr. Joy, the H. R. Joy, who is president of the Parkway Motor Car company, and of the Lincoln highway, about whom so much was said in print last week, is not to omit Albuquerque from his itinerary after all.
When Mr. Joy unloaded a big Packard car from the express car of a local train here last Saturday night, climbed aboard and set out, it was supposed that that was the extent of the time he was to spend in this city. But not so. He only took a little drive over the Crown-to-Crown highway to Springville, or maybe a little farther, and will be here Sunday, or Monday, or Tuesday, as strikes his fancy and according to the gasoline supply.
Mr. Joy, it was learned today, is one of the syndicate of twelve which recently purchased the Ramon Vigil grant of 34,000 acres north of Santa Fe. This grant, it is understood, is to become the grounds of a great and highly controlled country club. A road is to be built from Santa Fe to it and a club built, while members will build their cottages on the grounds. It is said the plan of the syndicate is to get 25 other men to enter it, so as to make the total 49 and to limit the membership to this number.
The grant includes magnificent hunting and fishing grounds and streams and is also the location of a great variety of cliff dwellings, prehistoric cave dwellings and ruins of all sorts, all of vast archaeological value.

GENERAL ELECTION DAY BILL PASSES COMMONS

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
London, Feb. 27.—The House of Commons today passed by 155 votes to 122 the second reading of a bill providing that all parliamentary elections be held on the same day. The Liberal party argued that it will largely prevent plural voting and the disturbance of business by prolonged general elections. The Unionist party opposed the bill but the government has taken it under its wing.

KOEHLER HERE TO START WORK ON STATE BOOKS

Publicity expert Making Arrangements for Publication of New Mexico Exposition Volume.

A. R. Koehler, Jr., the publicity expert recently commissioned by the New Mexico board of exposition managers to publish the state's official book for distribution at the New Mexico display at the San Diego exposition, arrived this morning from Los Angeles to take up the work of preliminary arrangement for the book. Mr. Koehler said he intended to make Albuquerque his headquarters for the next nine or ten months, that is, until the book was finished.
"Everything is working along nicely," he said this morning, "and I fully expect to get out such a book as will open people's eyes a good deal. New Mexico has the stuff, there is no question about that, all that is necessary is to tell the world about it."
The book will be as carefully and accurately compiled as possible and will be of such a nature as to form a complete epitome of New Mexican industry and progress. It will also serve as a handbook of her resources.
"The board is arranging, I understand, to place a copy of the publication in every public library and large newspaper office the country over. That ought to be of great benefit in a publicity way."
Mr. Koehler stated that the first section of his staff, five men, would arrive here within a couple of weeks and would go right to work. The others are to be brought in as needed.

GIRL IN THE TAXI DRAWS A LAUGH

"The Girl in the Taxi" company, while weak in spots, still was able to draw plenty of laughing approval from a small audience in Elks theater last night. George Parkner as "Berlie" was the life of the piece and his dancing is well worth the price of admission. Miss Aileen Morrison in the title role is distinctly clever. The tango dancing of Miss Morrison and Mr. Parkner was entirely pleasing.
